Encore Partners

Encore Partners are donors who have named the Colorado Children's Chorale in their estate plans.

Becoming an Encore Partner is a great way to support the Children's Chorale for generations to come. These legacy gifts help ensure both continued artistic excellence and the Chorale's ability to impact young lives in powerful ways. Simple options are available and all gifts are welcome and humbly appreciated.

For more information, please contact Roberta Sladovnik at (303) 892-5600, x409 or Sladovnik@ChildrensChorale.org.

The funds listed below were made possible by generous donors who have given the Chorale a gift in the amount of $50,000+ to establish a Colorado Children's Chorale named endowment fund.

Duain Wolfe Conductor's Podium Fund

Melissa and Fritz Trask Fund for Artistic Excellence

Kirkpatrick Fund for Community Outreach

Stabio/Hallador Fund for Financial Assistance

Billings Family Touring Fund

Gossard Fund for Tour Choir Excellence

Russell J. Colton Fund For Commissions

(named in his honor by Carol and David Driggs)

Thank you to the following donors who contributed to the Chorale to honor Deborah DeSantis on her retirement. At her request, those funds were used for tuition assistance, and in November 2020, the Chorale's Board of Trustees established the Deborah DeSantis Scholarship Fund as an endowment fund.

Thank you, Debbie, for your long-time service to the children and families in our community.

Maestro Society of the Colorado Children's Chorale

The Maestro Society honors individuals who support the Chorale's annual Performance and Educational Programs at the $1,500 level and above. In return for their leadership support, Maestro Society members receive benefits which include priority seating at Chorale subscription concerts, invitations to concert receptions and special Maestro Society events. For more information on the Maestro Society, please contact Roberta Sladovnik, Development Director, 303-892-5600 X409 or Sladovnik@ChildrensChorale.org
